

HELP RAISE MONEY!

To fund a care for Intellectually Challenged

I am Sanju Nandimalla , 7th grade at McCord Middle School . I am fundraising through the Community Recycle Campaign, Columbus, OH for MANASA school in India. MANASA school is a non-profit voluntary organization working for the welfare and integration of the intellectually challenged. All raised money will support the services to train intellectual challenged child care by implementing various programs for their development. Please visit website for more info.
